UM HOSTS WALK N ROLL DAYS

MISSOULA –

The University of Montana will reward campus community members who carpool or use modes of transportation other than driving.

As part of UM's Walk n Roll Days – Monday through Friday, April 26-30 – volunteers will hand out raffle tickets to people arriving on campus any way other than driving alone. The tickets will be available at all campus entrances and in the University Center.

Winning tickets will be drawn at noon Friday, April 30, on the Mansfield Mall. Raffle prizes include a cruiser bike, bike trailer, headlights, locks and numerous other donated gifts. Along with the drawing, the finale to the week also will include food and a performance by the band, Broken Valley Road Show.

A new addition to Walk n Roll Days, "Fine Arts With Bike Parts," will take place at noon on Wednesday, April 28, on the Oval. The event will include performances and displays by UM music, dance and art students – all centered around a bicycle theme.

Walk n Roll Days will be held as part of the City of Missoula's 13th Annual Bike Bus Walk Week, April 24-30. The week includes more than 70 different events and activities, including historic neighborhood walking tours, bike rides and panel discussions.
